Hospital looking good

The hospital on Winchester boulevard is really beginning to look good. When will it be open?

Curious

Editor's note: Most of the exterior work is completed but interior work, such as carpeting and painting, is still going on. We'll have pictures and a progress report in the issue of December 28. So far, O'Connor Hospital officials plan a treatment center for victims of chronic pain at the local facility. Other plans have not been finalized.

I can't believe all the construction work that is going on in Campbell right now. It seems like everywhere you look there's another building or condominium going up. Some of them are a big improvement, like the homes on Campbell avenue at Dot, but I just hope we don't get too carried away. Controlled growth is a big issue in San Jose right now and they have a lot more undeveloped land to control. Who's watching out for us?

Old Timer

Editor's note: The new open space zoning ordinance, which has come under fire in recent weeks, is one way of "watching out" for Campbell.

THE TWO NEWEST paramedic-fire fighters for the City of Campbell are, from left, Larry Lutz and Kip Dorsey who received certification last week from the county health department. The two men completed two months of full-time classroom study in Southern California plus a stint in a hospital emergency room and field work in Los Angeles and Palo Alto. They also had to pass a stiff written and oral examination.

Pollard road has become the focus of community attention in recent weeks, particularly after a kindergarten student at San Tomas School was killed after he ran into the road. Above, Ila Bravo, Cynthia Poe and Esther Garcia are among those trying to do something about the dangerous route youngsters must take to school. For the story see page 7 of today's PRESS.

Campbell high district

Petition drive underway

A GROUP OF Campbell high school district parents, upset over the handling of the recent school board appointment, have launched a petition drive to force a district-wide election.

According to Chuck Buron, 2177 Willester ave., San Jose, who is spearheading that drive, the group has 30 days from the appointment to gather 560 signatures.

That figure represents 5 per cent of the voters who cast ballots in the last school board election. The group has until December 14 to submit those names to the county office of education.

"I can't tell you how we're doing right now," Buron said Monday night, "but we have petitions out all over the district." Between 80 and 90 petitions, with space for 10 signatures, are being circulated door-to-door in all eight high school areas, he added.

LAST MONTH the high school board voted to appoint Dorothy Goble to the unexpired term of Trustee Craig Smith, who resigned to accept a scholarship to an Oregon university. Goble, a 12-year veteran of the board, was defeated in the election which brought newcomer Smith to office as the top vote getter.

On the night of the appointment the board was split 2-1 for several votes before an executive session was called and members of the district selection committee met with trustees. After making another attempt to nominate C.B. (Sonny) Towner, the reputed top choice of nine of the 10 committee members, Trustee Steve Tedesco switched his vote and Goble was appointed.

Buron, long active in the Camden High School area, says there are several reasons his group is trying to force an election in the district. He objects to the way the appointment was handled (including confusion over the actual deadline for nomination) and to the appointment of an individual defeated in a bid for reelection earlier.

"AND MEMBERS of the (selections) committee felt they had been used by the district," Buron added.

The 10 member committee included board President Ray Silva, Tedesco and parent leaders from the eight high schools.

Trustees were under the gun when they held the meeting to appoint a trustee November 14. Under state law if an appointment isn't made within 30 days a special election has to be called within 120 days. Price tag for that election ranges from $20,000 to $30,000.

Buron says he isn't swayed by those cost figures.

"The district has over $3 million in surplus funds that I know of," he explained. He added the district should also have set aside funds for an election since three school board posts were due to expire this March until action by the legislature postponed those elections until November.

MAIN OBJECTION to the action of district officials is the choice of Goble, Buron says.

"If they would have picked Mickey Mouse or Donald Duck we might not have acted until November," he added.

After signatures are turned over to the office of education they will be verified by the county registrar of voters office.

If Buron's group obtains 560 valid signatures or more the district will have to call a special election within 120 days.

$1.6 million

Old school price tag goes sky high

A STARTLED task force committee learned last week that the price tag to renovate the old Campbell grammar school will be almost double the earlier engineer's estimate.

Monday night members of the Grammar School Task Force decided to look into several alternative plans which will allow the city to share the costs with either the school district or private developers.

Prime concern of the group is that the building be preserved regardless of the use; private or public.

Last month Hugh B. Brewster, consulting engineer submitted a preliminary report which estimated rehabiltation costs for the vacant school building at $888,000.

Last week, in his final estimate, those figures rose to $1.4 million not counting contingencies, architectural fees and a few other possible costs. According to City Manager the actual costs are now estimated at between $1.6 and $1.7 million.

Task force member Homer Hyde is scheduled to make a presentation to the city council at the December 11 meeting.

ALTERNATE plans to be suggested include:

- Acquiring the building from the school district by using federal housing and community development funds. Then granting a long term lease to a developer with the stipulation that part of the building be used for public purposes.
- Acquiring a long term lease on the property from the school district and then allowing a private developer to lease and refurbish the building for a term of 15 to 20 years. There would be no cost to the city and at the end of the lease the school district would have improved property.
- Setting up a non-profit organization to sell bonds to pay for the refurbishing.

Central to efforts to preserve the building are having it declared a historical landmark. If the building were placed on the national registry it would give developers a tax incentive by allowing the 56 year old building to be depreciated as if it were a new building.

CITY CURATOR Jeanette Watson has already requested a hearing before the state historical landmarks commission and expects word on her request later this week.

The big "if" in city efforts to preserve the site for a neighborhood center lies with the owners of the property; the Campbell elementary school district.

If trustees opt to sell the property outright that would scuttle some of the committee's alternate plans.

Next Monday night city officials are expected to give their okay to one or more proposals to be presented to school trustees.

A startling sight to motorists along Winchester boulevard, north of Hacienda, is people sitting on the railroad tracks. But they're not waiting for a train. The tracks are the only place to sit in that area while waiting for a transit bus. In wet weather bus travelers stand near the busy boulevard since the dirt near the bus stop turns into mud. Bill Kenniman of the county transit district said Monday bus stops with similar problems should be reported to the district customer service and to the city traffic engineering department. As for the "railroad" bench, Kenniman says he'll look into getting one of the district's old benches installed until the request for a new one can be processed; probably next spring. Campbellite Walter Burton humored photographer Amy Huntoon by posing for this picture. The four people who were waiting on the tracks had caught the bus by the time she got back from her other assignments.

Open space opinion

Zone school sites with care, city attorney says

THE CITY can apply Open Space zoning to public schools within its boundaries, City Attorney J. Robert Dempster says. But Campbell could also be facing some expensive law suits if it's not handled properly, he added.

Dempster submitted a two-page written opinion to city councilmen last month after first reading was held on a new Open Space Element and zoning ordinance which spells out to need to preserve open areas in a heavily urbanized city. That element and ordinance were later adopted.

While several types of public/semi-public lands are spelled out in the element the big discussion locally has been over including school sites. And under goals and policies of the element it states the city should "acquire school sites when they become available in areas that could be justified for park and open space purposes."

Representatives of the Campbell high school district, Moreland and Campbell elementary districts have already gone on record in opposition to the application of the new O.S. zone to school sites.

NO SPECIFIC school sites have yet been designated O.S. but the city is expected to set up a committee possibly by early next year to consider which sites should be rezoned.

At present all schools are designated Public Facility (P.F.). If and when those lands are to be sold the school district would apply to the city for a general plan change to have the property rezoned. An O.S. zone would put school officials on notice that the city feels these properties should be preserved for open space.

City Attorney Dempster feels there is no problem with the Open Space Element but has some reservations about how the new zoning might be applied.

The Planning Commission earlier recommended that all school sites be rezoned O.S. Dempster disagrees.

"I SUGGEST we discuss first applying said zoning to school sites that are presently operating as a school facility and there are no intentions that said school will become inoperable and declared surplus in the near future," Dempster wrote. ". . . I feel that if the city were to apply O.S. zoning to any parcels either having been declared surplus or in the reasonably near future to be declared surplus that they can expect litigation from the school district(s)," he explained.

Two school sites within Campbell are already vacant, the old Campbell grammar school and Hamilton School. Several more either will be closed or are being considered for closing. San Tomas School is already slated for a June, 1979 closing and Coventry School is recommended for closing by Moreland district staff. Campbell High School is one of eight facilities in the high School District also being considered for closing. A final decision will be made by school trustees early next year.

SCHOOL officials have said they don't oppose open space. Their concern is over the possibility of the city imposing O.S. zoning on prime property that might bring a much higher selling price on the open market.

It's alright for the city to acquire school sites if it chooses, according to Martin Hover, attorney for the high school district, but the city should pay fair market value.

At the next city council meeting a study session will be set up between the council and planning commission. The main topic on the agenda will be open space zoning.

The city attorney's position on the new zoning, that it be selectively applied, appears to stem from concern over possible court fights.

". . .I do not feel the city should risk losing the lawsuit and then being faced with having to pay damages for inversely condemning surplus school property," Dempster said.

CAB DRIVER Don Dunlap helps Andrew Castro into the taxi at the Senior Nutrition Site in Campbell last week. On Friday Campbell inaugurated its taxi subsidy program which offers one-way trips by cab to senior citizens (60 and older) and the handicapped for 50 cents a trip. Tickets can be purchased from Campbell Community Services, 75 N. Central ave., from 9 a.m. to noon weekdays during the last week of each month. Call 378-8141 for details.

Wesley Manor

Highrise center nears completion

WESLEY Manor, a high rise senior citizen complex on Winchester boulevard, is 90 per cent completed, according to administrator Jerry Thomasson.

Both interior and exterior work on the 12-story building is almost complete. Still to be installed is the landscaping and paving.

According to Thomasson, a ribbon cutting was originally planned for mid-December but that has been put off now until January. Tentative date for the open house and ribbon cutting is January 13.

The Federally subsidized housing project, owned by Methodist Retirement Foundation, Inc., still has a waiting list of about 500 individuals who appear eligible for government rent subsidies (30 per cent of the occupants of the 156-unit complex must be low income individuals or couples).

Those are now being screened

Still to be filled are the 15 units set aside for handicapped individuals.

Thomasson said Monday he expects tenants to begin moving in by mid-January.

A new crop of 'sitters'

Thirty one young people received certificates Monday night as graduates of the 21st Baby Sitters Seminar sponsored by the Campbell Fire Department.

Graduates, who range in age from 11 to 15, include: Elise Ankuda, Glenn Antoune, Darcy Bazzill, Nadine Bazzill, Lesli Bock, Wes Denton, Beth Gray, Donald Harris, Laura Heisinger, Laura Holmes and Karen Infantino.

Also Chris Jensen, Lori Jensen, Ernest Juhasz, Lisa Litchfield, Ann Mays, Kelly Monico, Kristine Murphy, Shawn Oliver, Hilary Ragan, Stacy Ricketson, Barbara Rosenberg, Janice Rosenberg, Lisa Seiver, Julie Smith, Kelley Tucket, Beverly Tuel, Laura Valkenaar, Suzanne Wellington, Brian Wood and Janelle Yeadon.

DINING GUIDE

as recommended by Bea René

SHAPE UP . . .

Now that the first big holiday dinner is over, I know we all over-indulged at the dining room table, & are now probably enjoying the proverbial turkey soup & all the other left-overs. Nutritionists tell us that the roast turkey isn't the "culprit" when it comes to putting on weight at the holiday table, but all those accompaniments — mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, candied yams, rich gravy, pumpkin/mince pie, not to mention all those Hot Buttered Rums or Eggnog drinks preceding your feast . . . the best advice I can offer, is to cinch up that belt buckle & start dieting in preparation for the Christmas/New Year's festivities . . . skipping a single meal of about 600 calories will start the ball rolling — but it wouldn't hurt to try one of those water, grapefruit, hard boiled egg diets — or whatever is best & easiest for you. Of course, some good exercise would also give you an assist, & besides that, "It's good for you," the experts says . . . "Keeps the petro flowing & the pump pulsating" — which is all that some of us want out of life anyway . . . I was going to end up this article by saying, "Life is a banquet, so enjoy!!!" However, guess I'll take that old exercise bicycle out of the garage, & rev it up!

DINING CHIT-CHAT: New at ANGELO's, every Fri. & Sat. nights, "ELECTRIK BLUE" a 4 pc. group w/trumpet, horns, drums, keyboard & lead singer Lily Light . . . the 1978 "DINING AFFAIRS" publication of mine is on sale in The Garden Shop of the VILLAGE HOUSE & GARDEN in Los Gatos . . . Superb mid-Eastern cuisine is served at THE ARMENIAN GOURMET in Sunnyvale, where exciting Aram Janjigian serves the same authentic food he once served to stars such as Buddy Rich, Duke Ellington, Bette Midler . . . Owner Peter Rassmussen of THE BLUE PHEASANT has the distinction of featuring one of the first "disco-type" operations (pre-Travolta) — Ex-D.J. Jack Thorn spins platters of the big band era, together with some more up-beat numbers . . . RENZO's can always be counted on to provide a memorable dining experience — Continental cuisine with an Italian touch . . . Chef Kento Liu prepares excellent specialties at IMPERIAL GARDENS, specializing in food that tastes good & looks good too. He formerly chefed at the RUBY PALACE IN SF . . . Here's good news! Remember RICKEY AMADOR (one of Augusto's talented brothers??) Saw him last night & he tells me he is starting a gig at the FISHERMAN'S VILLAGE in Cupertino, every Thurs., Fri. & Sat. nights. Will be great to hear him again . . . The 94th AERO SQUADRON offers one of the busiest discotheques in the area, featuring popular D.J's Robert Ghircelli & Frank Vanilla, & even have spec. Ladies' Nite, Dance Contests & lessons, too . . .

Mrs. G. Krieger of Los Altos Hills writes that she as well as many of her friends, is affected adversely by tobacco smoke, & was sorry that Prop. 5, the Clean Indoor Air initiative was defeated by only 2%. She would be most grateful to know the names of restaurants that provide separated areas for smokers & non-smokers — an excellent idea. For starters the PROUD POPOVER in Stanford Shopping Center is one restaurant, and the VICTORIA STATION'S also provide this service. I'll research this matter & report back in another column, but if any of you readers know of a restaurant that does separate smokers from non-smokers, do drop me a line.

A GEM OF A RESTAURANT: The RUBY KING RESTAURANT has arrived in Los Altos; it's knowledgeable owners are from Taipei & Hong Kong where they own 8 famous restaurants. They will be beautifully refurbishing THE FOUR SEASONS (also formerly Golden Pavilion) & will feature a "Grand Opening" sometime in February or April. The company will retain the Four Season's name until this time, & I understand they are honoring all prior bookings & reservations. Incidentally, they are featuring a Happy Hour Mon-Fri. 4:30-6:30 p.m. with delicious hot hors d'oeuvres & (get this) 85 cents Well Drinks! So here's one to add to your list of "must visits" soon & then watch for the announcement of their Official Grand Opening — I'm told it will be "splendiferous!"

This disco also features a spec. "Ladies Nite," a "Dance Contest Nite," & one nite in which they give disco dancing lessons. Here's a restaurant that has everything: great food, great entertainment & dancing, a fun bar, unique decor, & dining tables that overlook the landing field of the S.J. Airport — not only the kiddies enjoy using the earphones to listen to the tower's instructions, but the adults, too!

Pang On Lui, owner of the HWEI FU SHING RESTAURANT in P.A., creates excellent Chinese fare . . . lovely daughter Joyce suggests many spec.'s such as Mu Shu Pork, a classic Mandarin dish. Joyce also tells me the spec. Chinese breakfast served from 11-2 p.m. is very popular — a fun "family affair." Rehab project

It's fix up time for San Tomas homeowners

THE CAMPBELL housing rehabilitation program was slow getting started in the downtown area. But after months of field work the program in that target area is going strong.

The San Tomas target area is another story.

In less than two months the city has had more than 20 requests and home inspections are booked through December and into January.

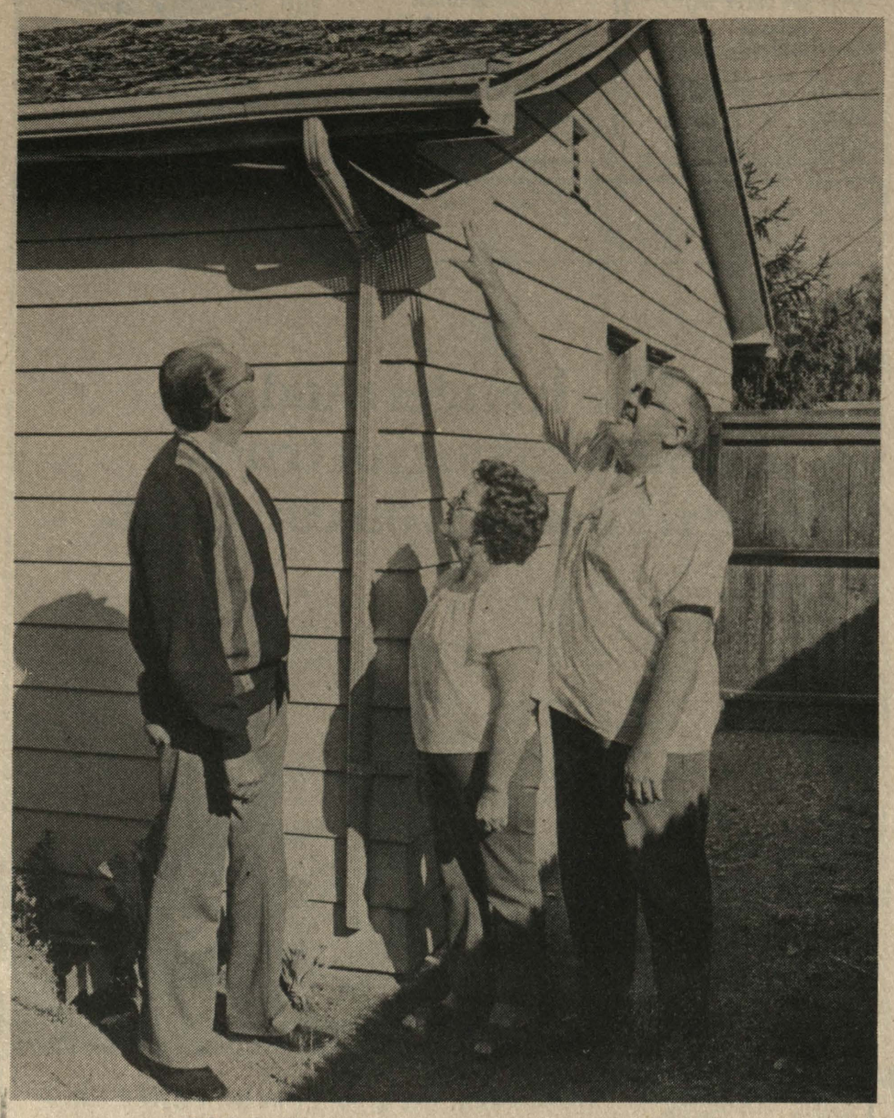
Under this project, home owners can obtain no or low cost loans to refurbish their homes. Types of work that can be funded include roofing, electrical and plumbing, exterior painting, repairing stairways and even adding a white picket fence to the front yard. In addition the city can award grants of up to $200 for additional "fix up" work.

Interest rates on the loans, which can range from several hundred to several thousand dollars, are from zero to 8 per cent, depending on the income of the family. Both short term and long term (up to 15 year) loans are available.

To qualify families can have income up to 150 per cent of the county-wide average; a hefty amount. But main focus is on low to moderate income families.

The San Tomas target area is generally between Pollard road, to Abbott lane, to Hacienda and back to Hazel avenue. On the north it includes both sides of Burrows road to San Tomas Aquino.

Anyone interested in learning more about the program can contact Thom McCue, housing coordinator; or Larry O'Neill, outreach worker, at 378-8141 weekdays.



ROOFING WORK is planned for the home of Bill and Byra Kuhns of N. Crockett avenue, under the Campbell Housing Rehabilitation Program. With the local couple is Don Buckweitz, county rehabilitation specialist, who works with the city on the project. Right now more than 20 property owners have signed up for inspections through the federally funded program.
(Photography by Amy Huntoon)

DISCUSSING contractors' bids with Kathey Hale is Larry O'Neill, outreach worker for the Campbell Housing Rehabilitation Program. In recent weeks O'Neill has been canvasing the San Tomas area to let property owners know of the low or no cost loans available to refurbish homes in that target area.

Meeting today

City officials have a beef with county

Campbell city officials will be meeting with county supervisor Rod Diridon this afternoon at City Hall. And one of the top items on the agenda at the 4 p.m. meeting will be the county's recent decision to "adjust" federal housing and community development funds to the smaller cities.

In Campbell's case that adjustment means the loss of about $36,000 in federal funds next year (from the $450,000 expected) and an indetermined amount for the following two years.

At the last council session Campbell officials had some sharp criticism over the way those funding changes were made. The cities learned of the first of those proposed changes after they had been voted on by supervisors.

Since Campbell, and other smaller cities, aren't large enough to obtain HCD funding directly the county acts as the administrator of federal funds. Other "non-entitlement" cities include Los Gatos, Cupertino and Saratoga, among others.

Originally, the county's role was that of a middle agency, processing applications for funding and distributing the grants. In recent years however, county officials have been taking a more active role by screening requests more carefully and by using part of the grant for county-wide projects.

The latest change by county supervisors got short shift with the city manager's association. Campbell City Manager Bob Stephens reported a letter has gone out to supervisors from the association stating the county should not dictate to the non-entitlement cities. "It is a partnership."

The first item on today's agenda is "city-county relations" in the area of the HCD block grants.

Also under discussion will be use of HCD funds for the old Campbell grammar school, city-county planning for improvements to the Pollard road — Winchester boulevard area and the city - Central Fire District cooperative agreements for fire services.

Music concert slated

A free music concert is set for Saturday, December 16 at the Campbell public library, 70 N. Central ave.

At 2 p.m. that day guitarist Harry Alto will perform and at 3 p.m. a jazz jam session gets underway with Ray Nordahl on trumpet, Sam Castro, reeds, flute, piccolo, Galen Smiley, piano, Bob Hughes, drums, Bob Collins, bass and Harry Alto, guitar.

The program is sponsored by the American Federation of Musicians, local 153, and American Federation of Musicians Recording Industries Trust Fund.

It pays to advertise — call your local Meredith SUN papers' office and we'll show you how easy it is to get the most from your advertising dollar.

Nutrition notes

It's harder to cook for one

By DOROTHY TERRILL

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dorothy Terrill, a registered dietitian and instructor at De Anza College, holds an M.S. in nutrition from UC, Berkeley. Questions about nutrition are invited. Address all questions to: Dorothy Terrill, Nutrition Notes, P.O. Box 1032, Saratoga, California 95070. Mrs. Terrill will answer questions as space allows.

"HOW CAN I cook for one and not resort to frozen dinners, sandwiches, canned soups or quick mixes?" asks a reader.

Admittedly it is more difficult to cook for one than for four or five people. Most recipes are designed for four to six servings and while most of these do not serve six hearty appetites, still they are far too much for a single serving. There are a few cookbooks on the market designed for one or two servings. In lieu of one of these, cut regular recipes in half and freeze the uneaten portions to be used the following week.

When one works all day and comes home to cook for one's self and eat alone, the incentive for elaborate meal preparation just isn't there. However, one can still eat nutritiously and spend a minimum of time in food preparation without using prepared foods all the time.

Broiled meats such as steaks, chops, chicken or fish are the easiest. Serve these with rice or potatoes cooked on top of the stove and a fresh or frozen vegetable. A salad can be tossed while this is cooking and a meal can easily be ready in 30 minutes. Another important aspect is keeping clean-up simple. Be stingy in the use of extra utensils and there will be less dishwashing.

Preparing multiples of a recipe and freezing for future meals is also a timesaver and adds variety to the diet. Try spaghetti sauce, Mexican casseroles, lasagne, or other combinations. Some of these foods tucked in the freezer will add variety to your plain broiled meat menus.

ORIENTAL-TYPE cooking lends itself well to individual servings as you just cut up as many vegetables and meat as you can eat and stir-fry them together. This is budget stretching, too, as a smaller amount of meat can go further. An example of this type of cooking for one: Use as much round steak as you feel you can eat. Slice it thinly and toss it into a skillet with a small amount of oil in the bottom.

Stir fry it until browned. Add any combination of fresh vegetables that you like in the amount that you can eat. Stir fry these and cover for a few minutes for more rapid cooking. Cook the vegetables to the underdone side so they are crispy and not mushy. Add soy sauce to taste and thicken with cornstarch and water mixture. Serve the meat and vegetable combination over rice which cooked at the same time. A small green salad or fruit mixture completes the menu. Total preparation time should not take more than 30 minutes.

As most people living alone know, it is more expensive to purchase food in small size containers than in the larger sizes. However, if only a small amount will be used, the larger size will be a waste. When full-sized recipes are prepared with portions frozen, then the larger size may be practical.

Health tips

Count those calories

DO YOU need to lose weight?

If you do, you are not alone. One out of every five Americans is toting more pounds than he or she should, according to the American Medical Association.

And you can forget all of the books and magazine articles about losing weight without dieting. The only way to take in your belt or slip into that pantsuit again is to eat less and exercise more, the AMA points out.

But, no matter how much you exercise, you can't just shake it off. An inescapable exercise is turning your back on food and repeating many times a day the word "no!"

First, find out what you should weigh. There are charts that will give you a general idea. Because no two persons are exactly alike, there are no ideal, absolute weights. But you can find your approximate ideal weight, give or take five or ten pounds.

Calories do count. If you eat more calories than your body can use in its normal, daily activity, the excess is stored in fat. Most people leading moderately active lives need 15 calories per pound to maintain their desired weight. If you want to weight 150 pounds, you can consume food containing no more than 2,250 calories each day — 150 x 15 equals 2,250.

If you're above the desired weight, you must consume less than the total calories per day needed to maintain present weight. You needn't go hungry. Just eat more low-calorie foods and shun the gravies, creamed dishes, rich desserts, fried entrees, and liquor. Eat slowly and fill up on carrot sticks, leafy vegetables, radishes, consommes, and most fresh fruits. Get a calorie counter booklet and plan your diet menus around it.

There are approximately 3,500 calories in each stored pound of fat. To lose one pound a week consume 500 fewer calories each day than if you were already at your desired weight. If you want to lose two pounds each week, cut the calories back by 1,000 each day. It is usually unwise to try to lose more than two pounds per week. If you are more than 10 pounds overweight, see your family doctor before launching any do-it-yourself diet.

Where will we find the energy to keep up with them?
Children keep growing and so do their needs–for jobs, homes, goods, services and electricity.
Even with a declining birth rate, there are more families, students and workers than ever before.
They'll need twice as much electricity by 1999.
More than 80,000 new households were added to PG&E's electric system in 1977, and the State predicts an increase of over 1½ million people in Northern California during the next ten years. And the law requires that PG&E provide adequate electric service for everyone. Even though all of us continue to conserve electricity, we'll still need new power plants. Since it takes five to ten years or more to bring a new power plant into service, it's important that we start building now.
No new plants without government approval.
It takes governmental approvals of all kinds to build new electric generating plants. And the approval process has slowed down so much that it may cause power shortages in the 1980's. Faster action is needed.
At the same time, no one can afford to cut back on conservation. We must all conserve electricity in every way we can.
We don't like to be the ones to tell you about the possibility of shortages. But not telling you the facts would be doing you – and your children – a greater disservice.
If you have any questions we'd like to hear from you. Just write PG&E, Box 3728, San Francisco, CA 94106.
To keep things running in the 1980's, we must begin new power plants today.

Patrol eyed

Mothers launch safety campaign for Pollard

If you see a woman with a bright yellow vest shepherding children across San Tomas Aquino road or reminding youngsters to cross Pollard at More avenue instead of the railroad tracks, that will be a member of the Mother's Safety Patrol.

The parent patrol idea is just one being pursued by a group of people concerned over the condition of Pollard road and the hazard it represents to school children.

The schools and the City of Campbell are doing their part too.

Public assemblies are being called at local schools to talk about safety and a safety poster contest is being discussed.

Campbell officials have already committed themselves to paying for a crossing guard at the More avenue crossing (hopefully shared by Los Gatos) and a report is due from public works in January on the cost to install a signal light at Pollard and More.

The incident that apparently got people moving on making some changes in that street was the death of a San Tomas kindergartner earlier this year. All agree that fatal pedestrian accident could have occurred anywhere since the youngster ran into the street in front of an oncoming car, but it was the spark that ignited long standing concern and brought people together.

Since that accident busing services have been increased for San Tomas students who live in the Calla Marguerita area, south of the railroad tracks. Earlier, while morning bus service was available the afternoon run was for kindergarten students only (since 1-6 graders got out at different times).

"Students would ride their bikes instead of taking the school bus," explained one mother, "because otherwise they had to walk home."

THE FIRST family to grant easement rights so the walkway for pedestrians can be widened in front of their Pollard road home were Ila and Tony Bravo (above right) shown with Vickie Candelaria. Safety conscious parents are mounting a house-to-house campaign to get similar commitments from other property owners so the road can be improved.
(Photography by Amy Huntoon)

WHILE photographer Amy Huntoon was taking pictures on Pollard road last week a typical traffic snarl occurred. Add dozens of school children walking to and from school to this scene and you have the picture of why local parents are upset.

Last Friday five women met in the home of Jinny Pinkerton to discuss the situation and come up with ideas to help make things safer until long-range goals, such as a signal or road project, can be reached. The mother's patrol was one of them.

The group also plans to talk with scouting groups about traffic safety and is trying to come up with a plan to help make motorists traveling Pollard aware of the danger to youngsters.

In some areas there is ample room for children to walk, even though the dirt path turns to mud in rainy weather. But other parts of Pollard are so narrow there is barely enough room for two lanes of traffic and pedestrians (particularly near the railroad tracks).

As Rolling Hills Principal Bob Turk put it earlier, "There is just no room for error."

For Dec. 9 through Dec. 15

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Chance remark sparks dormant idea and the incredible suddenly seems rather reasonable. Message from a distance highlighted. Pull down the cobwebs, puff the pillows and chill the Chablis, Ari, for week apt to end on key of G, for guest, giddy and grateful.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Late-blooming flower catches your eye. Linger if your like, Taurus, but don't pluck — leave it for the next traveler to enjoy. End of week sure to find you humming. Hnnn.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): If your yellow brick road seems strewn with bubble gum wrappers and empty beer cans, Gem, get out broom and make a clean sweep of it. Good news arrives via little bluebird. Week ends on key of D, for do, dash and dot.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Impatience leads to muddy waters. Watch your words, little Crab, or you contribute to existing pollution. Wisdom dictates that to live forward, you must understand backward.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Like scars, past mistakes fade only with time, Leo, so if you will just stop picking, Mother Nature will get on with the healing process. Busy week ends on key of C, for cheer, charm and chipper.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Action-packed week ahead. Coded message arrives — read with care. Allow the festive lights to brighten those dark places in your heart, Virgo, and week will end on note of hope and harmony.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): It may be the season to be jolly, Libra, but don't overdo. Moderation at the table (dining or gambling) is key to success. Message from one who admires you arrives and warms the cockles of your loving heart. You glow.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Because of your romantic nature, Scorp, you often enter into relationships too casually. Loiter under the mistletoe this week, my friend, and you're apt to get more than you bargain for. Just remember — Olga warned you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Personal plans shift into high gear. Hand of friendship offered by one who appears somewhat "run-of-the-mill." Be receptive, Saj, and you may discover that Old Run Of The Mill is actually Someone Rather Special.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 10): Get in touch with old chum from your salad days, Cap, for by now your judgment is not so green, nor your blood so cold. If possible, get together and maybe toss a few — just don't get oiled.

AQUARIUS (Jan 20-Feb. 18): Postpone plans involving partnership — your judgment poor this week. One who has your best interests in mind is in your corner rooting. Flickering faith flames anew.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Casual remark triggers emotional flood. Your cup isn't all that runneth over, Pisces, so keep boots and pump handy. Soap-opera week sloshes to a crazy close.

WHAT'S THE ULTIMATE XMAS GIFT FOR A BEDWETTER?

GIVE HIM A
DRY BED!
The greatest gift you can give a bedwetter and the rest of the family too, is an end to this serious problem, and make no mistake, bedwetting is serious. It can cause complicated psychological problems that last a lifetime.
Bedwetters are ashamed, humiliated and defeated. A world famous M.D. said, "They can't help but feel that they're a nuisance to the whole family". Another famous M.D. said "Every bedwetter gets an inferiority complex, to some degree". And it's so needless because bedwetting* can be ended.
Phone or write for a valuable 14 page booklet — "BEDWETTING — WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT AND HOW TO STOP IT" — a report by four medical doctors. IT'S FREE — NO COST OR OBLIGATION.

He left her for newer model

By JOHN IRVING

A RECENT divorcee of our acquaintance had a fun time comparing herself with her old car. Her ex considered her an outdated and worn out model and told her so when he left for the younger woman. The car he left her with was running poorly at 110,000 miles and the paint job was more rust than point.

After the divorce, Susan decided to give herself and her car a major overhaul. The community property division had been equitable and left Susan a bundle, ($85,000) that she never had access to or a chance to use, heretofore. An engine rebuild, transmission overhaul and a silver blue paint job turned the '68 Mustang convertible into a sweet running thing of beauty.

It took Susan five months to give herself a complete overhaul starting with an "I can do it" attitude. She did not need to lose any poundage but did need to re-position and tone up what she did have. The "Y" exercise program, jogging, tennis and swimming gave her a sleek configuration that matched the classic and not over abundant lines of her Mustang. The new clothing she made and purchased was more form fitting and youthful than she had ever been allowed to wear before. In her married past whenever she wore anything even faintly revealing or well fitted, her husband had told her, "not to put yourself on exhibit."

OUR INTERVIEW with Susan's ex, Richard got us the reasoning behind behind this restrictive attitude. Shortly before their 9 year old marriage, they had attended a party that became somewhat nude as the drinks became stronger and the evening progressed. Although Richard was completely nude, Susan was only stripped to the waist but when he saw this, he blew up, cursed her, dressed her and took her home immediately. He readily admits to having one way feelings of, "I can but you can't." The marriage was delayed by Richard for two months because of this incident as his way of punishing her for her "exhibitionism." He felt that if he "controlled" the way she dressed and acted she wouldn't appear attractive as she really was and wouldn't draw unwelcome (to Richard's attention from other men).

She is "completely turned off" by men that try to take over her life and has many ways of stopping such a situation before it can begin. She recently sold her house, and by decree, received half of these proceeds. Her plans are to buy a small condominium and return to work in "about 2 years." When asked why that long? she replied, "I'm going to play full time for at least 2 years, I owe at least that much to me."

COUNCIL MEETING CHANGE

The regular Campbell city council meeting of December 26 has been moved up to December 18 at 8 p.m.

Instead of sessions during the second and fourth week of the month, officials will meet the second and third week of December.

HEARING ON SCHOOL CLOSINGS

Moreland trustees will discuss the consolidation of three local schools at a hearing set for Tuesday, December 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the district offices.

Management recommendations are to close Coventry School and transfer those students to Latimer, close Bucknall with students attending Baker and close Brookview with Country Lane handling the additional students.

A meeting on the Brookview-Country Lane consolidation is set for tonight, December 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the multiuse room of Country Lane, 5140 Country lane, San Jose.

A final decision on the consolidations will be made by the school board on December 12.

PARK PROJECT STUDY

The city council plans to set a study session with the parks and recreation commission to discuss Phase II of improvements to John D. Morgan Park.

At the last council session the commission's recommendation for $159,500 in projects was discussed. These include tennis and volleyball courts, softball field lights, horseshoe pits and south play structure and additional benches and tables.

Included in the funding is $29,500 from the sale of property at Third and Grant streets. Proceeds of the sale of that property, originally donated by the Campbell Kiwanis Club, is to be used for recreation.

At the last commission meeting it was decided that the club should be given the option to designate which of the improvements they want the close to $30,000 used for.

CHECK BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

Before you take that holiday trip you can call a 24-hour phone number of the state department of transportation to find out about current weather and accident conditions on major state highways.

In the San Jose-Campbell area the number is 289-1161.

SURRENDER YOUR SUFFERING

"Are You Willing to Surrender Your Suffering and Sorrow," is the title of a workshop sponsored by Outreach for Women on Tuesday, December 12 from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Wells Fargo building, 1900 The Alameda.

That evening another workshop, "Holidays — Happiness, Ho-Hum or H-E-L-P?" will be held at the Outreach offices, 1717 The Alameda.

For more information call 292-8706.

In memoriam

SHANNON ROSE

Funeral services were held at St. Lucy's Church last Saturday for Shannon Elaine Rose, 15, who died November 29 of injuries suffered November 25 when she was struck by a car as she crossed Winchester boulevard at Latimer.

Investigating officer Al Wheeler said Shannon apparently started to cross the street before the light had turned green. The motorist, a San Jose man, was not cited.

A native of Florida, she was a sophomore at Archbishop Mitty High School and a member of St. Lucy's Youth Council. Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cary of Campbell; five sisters, Maureen Rose and Elizabeth Cary of Campbell, Christina Vogel of San Jose, Diane Silva of Hollister and Margaret Cary of Las Vegas; five brothers, Peter, Anthony, Joseph and Matthew Cary, all of Campbell and Thomas Cary of San Luis Obispo, and a grandfather, Joseph August of Campbell.

Darling-Fisher Campbell Memorial Chapel handled local arrangements.

Burial was at the Santa Clara Mission Cemetery.

RAY WOOD

Memorial services were held last Sunday at the Congregational Church of Campbell for Ray Wood, 87, former assistant postmaster of Campbell, who died November 30 after an illness.

Wood, a native of Oregon, served with the postal service from 1928 until his retirement in 1954. Following his retirement he continued working on the family apricot orchard on W. Rincon avenue.

A member of the U.S. Army Engineers stationed in France during World War I, Wood helped found the American Legion post 596 of Campbell. He was also a member of the local Congregational Church.

Surviving is his wife, Gertrude. of Campbell; two sons, Harvey Wood and Newton Wood, both of Oregon; a daughter, Lorraine Hancock of Portola Valley; a sister, Hazel Numan of San Francisco; 14 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Inurnment was at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

SWORDFISH STROGANOFF

Green noodles provide a colorful base for creamy swordfish stroganoff.

3 swordfish steaks (about 1½ lbs.)
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 large flat, mild onion, thinly sliced
¼ pound mushrooms, sliced
¼ cup dry white wine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire
2 teaspoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon prepared Dijon-style mustard
Dash pepper
1½ cups sour cream
Buttered hot, cooked green noodles
Paprika and chopped parsley for garnish

Cut fish into strips about ½ by 2 inches. Heat butter in a heavy frying pan; cook onion until soft, then add mushrooms and stir until limp. Remove onion and mushrooms from pan with a slotted spoon; reserve. Saute swordfish strips in same pan until white and firm, stirring occasionally to cook on all sides, about 4 minutes. Blend wine, salt, Worcestershire, lemon juice, mustard, and pepper with sour cream until smooth. Return onion and mushrooms to pan with sour cream mixture. Stir gently to blend. Cook just until sour cream is heated through. Serve, sprinkled with paprika and parsley, over green noodles. Makes 4 servings.

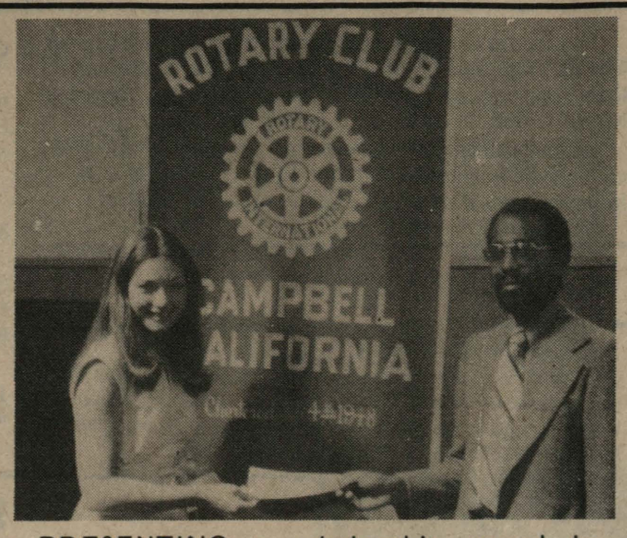
CAMPBELL ROTARY CLUB

The Campbell Rotary Club recently presented a check for $200 to Marianne Christen, 19, of Campbell — the final part of a $500 scholarship award to the computer science major at San Jose state university.

Marianne, daughter of Alfred and Elsa Christen, 120 Jane Ann way, is a 1977 graduate of Campbell High School.

Each year the Rotarians select a high school senior for a monetary award. In addition, scholarships are available to deserving West Valley College students.

The local club also administers the Ed Tonini Musical Scholarship Fund which assists worthy music students in the Campbell elementary school district.



PRESENTING a scholarship award to Marianne Christen, 19, is Campbell Rotary Club President Al Jackson. The Campbell High School graduate is a sophomore at San Jose State University.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Food of foreign lands will be featured at the "International Potluck" sponsored by the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Campbell this Thursday, December 14 at noon.

A musical Christmas program will be presented at the potluck, held at the 400 W. Campbell ave. church, by the children from Old Orchard School. The carolers will perform under the direction of Victoria Wyant.

Child care will be provided. For transportation call 377-7968 or the church, 378-4418.

CAMPBELL MOOSE LODGE

Members of Campbell Moose Lodge 1811 hosted a dinner for more than 100 senior citizens from the Campbell area on Saturday, November 25 at the Hamilton avenue lodge building.

In addition to a roast beef dinner with all the trimmings the event featured entertainment on a "rinky-dink" piano by Texas Rey, a magic act by Joe Brooks and a community sing.

Chairman of the event was Past Governor Bloukie Veach.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Non-members are welcome to attend the Monday, December 11 meeting of the Santa Clara County Subsitute Teachers' Association.

The group meets at 7:30 p.m. at the Mercury Savings and Loan building, 69376 Stevens Creek blvd., Cupertino.

ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS

The Saratoga chapter 760, American Association of Retired Persons will hold their Christmas party on Tuesday, December 19 at the Saratoga Community Center, 19655 Allendale ave.

The party starts at 10:30 a.m. with the club furnishing the roast beef and the members providing the trimmings.

NEW NAME FOR BANK

First National Bank of San Jose, which has 37 branch offices including one in Campbell, is changing its name in January.

The new name will be "Bank of the West."

First National was founded in 1874 as Farmers National Gold Bank in San Jose. It moved to the present headquarters at First and Santa Clara streets the same year and became First National in 1880.

President McKenzie Moss said the new name will reflect the bank's 104-year history plus its growth beyond the boundaries of San Jose.

Plans are also underway for new branches in Santa Cruz and Monterey counties.

ORDINANCE NO. 1205

BEING AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMPBELL AMENDING TITLE 21 OF THE CAMPBELL MUNICIPAL CODE BY ADDING CHAPTER 21.49, ENTITLED OPEN SPACE SPECIAL ZONING AREA, TO PROVIDE FOR THE PRESERVATION AND REASONABLE USE OF OPEN SPACE LANDS IN THE CITY OF CAMPBELL.

The City Council of the City of Campbell does ordain as follows:

SECTION ONE: Title 21 of the Campbell Municipal Code is hereby amended by adding a new chapter thereto, to be numbered and to read as follows:

CHAPTER 21.49
O-S SPECIAL
ZONING AREA

21.49.010 Creation: There is hereby created an open space special zoning area. The short name for this special zoning area shall be "O-S special zoning area."

21.49.020 Purpose: The purpose of the O-S special zoning area is to protect the public health, safety and welfare; to protect and preserve open space land as a limited and valuable resource; to permit a reasonable use of open space land while at the same time preserving and protecting its inherent open space characteristics to assure its continued availability as agricultural land, scenic land, recreation land, conservation or natural resource land. It is also the purpose of the O-S special zoning area to aid in the containment of urban sprawl and the structuring of urban development and for the retention of land in its near natural state to protect life and property in the community from the hazards of fire, floor and seismic activity; and to implement the Open Space Element of the General Plan of the City of Campbell.

21.49.030 Definitions: As used in this chapter, unless otherwise apparent from the context, the following definitions shall apply:

a. "Conservation or Natural Resource Land," land which possesses or encompasses conservation or natural resources.

b. "Conservation or Natural Resource," includes, but is not necessarily limited to streams, watersheds, ground water rechard, soils, wildlife habitat, as defined herein, special land forms, natural vegetation.

c. "Open Space Land," any parcel or area of land essentially unimproved in its natural state, and devoted to an open space use as defined herein, and which is designated in the Open Space Element for an open space use.

d. "Open Space District," any area of land or water designated "O-S" and subject to all of the terms and regulations of this chapter.

e. "Open Space Use" means the use of land for:

1. Public recreation.
2. Enjoyment of scenic beauty
3. Conservation or use of natural resources
4. Production of food or fiber
5. Protection of man and his artifacts (buildings, property, etc.)
6. Containment and structuring or urban development

f. "Recreation Land" means any area of land or water suitable for recreational purposes.

g. "Scenic Land" means any area of land or water which possesses scenic qualities suitable for preservation.

h. "Wildlife habitat" means any area of land or water valuable or necessary to or suitable for the preservation or enhancement of wildlife resources.

21.49.040 Uses Permitted with a Use Permit

Subject to approval of a use permit, the uses permitted in the underlying zoning district shall be permitted in the O-S special zoning area. The regulations of this chapter with regard to lot coverage, required yard areas, similar building height, and subdivision of land shall take precedence over requirements in the underlying zone. Said use permit to be ratified by City Council prior to becoming effective.

21.49.050 Maximum Lot Coverage

The maximum lot coverage, including main buildings and accessory buildings shall be 20 percent.

21.49.060 Yards

The Planning Commission may modify the yard requirement of the underlying zoning district by requiring greater or smaller building setbacks when it determines that such modifications are in the best interest of preserving open space and the neighborhood.

21.49.070 Height

In approving plans for building in excess of two stories, the Planning Commission must make the finding that the additional building height meets the purpose of this chapter.

21.49.080 Subdivision:

All divisions of land into four (4) or more parcels shall be designed on the cluster principle and shall be designed to minimize roads; to minimize cut, fill, and grading operations; to locate development in less rather than more conspicuous area; and to achieve the purpose of this chapter.

21.40.090 Signs:

Any signs approved in the O-S special zoning area shall have a maximum height of no more than six (6) feet and a maximum area of no more than twenty-five (25) square feet.

Consumers corner

Are British cars better? (True/False)

By SLIM INGHAM

Send all mail for this column to Consumers United, P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto, Ca. 94302, or call 494-1858 for consumer advice.

CONSUMERS United would like to solicit input from all owners of British Leyland Products — Triumph, M.G. and Jaguar as to their problems or lack of some with these cars.

Your experiences with dealer service will also be welcome as would your written assessment of the sales practices used when you purchased.

The reason behind this request is to gather information that will lead to a defined improvement in sales, product quality and service for the British Leyland products. This request is also issued with the knowledge and understanding of the local zone manager for British Layland products.

My mobile home park manager says that I won't be allowed to sell my mobile home unless he handles the sale and gets a commission. He also states that if I don't enter into a contract with him, he will kick me out of the park immediately. What are my rights?

Mrs. Della J., Sunnyvale

The Golden State Mobile Home Owners League will be investigating your problem which we understand to be a common one in your park. There are other obvious violations of the law in this park which will be looked into and acted upon, also, probably by the time you have read this.

We purchased a home in Palo Alto under a real estate contract that states that the roof doesn't leak. The roof does leak and we established that the leak existed before the time of sale. The real estate firm has denied any responsibility and says, sue us! Aren't they liable under this contract?

Mr. & Mrs. J. Grubb, Palo Alto

Our lawyers say, yes, they are liable. Their action will be positive and include a request to the California State Real Estate Commission for license withdrawal.

Our new Lees carpet is lovely but it was installed by idiots. The seller sent a man out to view the job and he agrees that it must be redone but we have to pay an additional fee for furniture moving. Do you think this is fair?

Mrs. T. Olson, Mountain View.

In no way should you be penalized for any additional charges required to do the job correctly. We have contacted the store owner and he has agreed to send a good installation crew at no charge.

Film

'Paradise Alley'

By LARRY ENGELMANN

JUST ABOUT everybody loved "Rocky." It deserved all of the Academy Awards it received and many it did not receive. Sylvester Stallone was great in the lead role. In fact, all of the players were outstanding in the film. And "Rocky" is the kind of movie that can be seen again and again and enjoyed equally each time it is viewed.

"Rocky" was a very hard act for writer/actor Stallone to follow. He tried, earnestly, in "F.I.S.T.," a film that was a lot better than the critics said it was. Now Stallone has tried again to match the magic of "Rocky" in his new film, "Paradise Alley."

More than anything else, "Paradise Alley" is a "Rocky" clone. It is a conscious and little disguised attempt to capitalize on nothing more than Stallone's reputation. There is something both callow and cheap in this production. The characters are neither believable nor do they arouse much audience sympathy. Their lives move along a rather bumpy path toward a conclusion that is nothing more than a wrestling adaption of "Rocky."

"Paradise Alley" is the story of the three Carboni brothers, ill-starred residents of New York's Hell's Kitchen. The story begins in 1946. Stallone plays Cosmo, the brothers who wears an ear ring and dreams of a better life. At the moment he is a panhandler. His older brother, Lenny (Armand Assante), is the brains — so to speak — of the Carboni clan. Hs is an embalmer in a local undertaking establishment. The youngest brother, Victor (Lee Canalito) is a gentle man who resembles a side of beef. He drives a battered truck through the city streets and delivers massive blocks of ice from door to door.

Cosmo sees his road to riches through professional wrestling. Not by himself, however, but by Victor. He trains Victor, brings Lenny into the scheme as a manager, and begins arranging matches. Victor is given the rather Ludicrious sobriquet, "Kid Salami." Victor wins a string of victories, the Carbonis begin making their fortune. But at the end of the road to wealth stands the mass Franky the Thumper, waiting for a showdown in the ring at Paradise Alley, the local bar/sporting arena in Hell's Kitchen.

AUDITIONS FOR "WHERE'S CHARLEY?"

Saratoga Drama Group will hold auditions for their forthcoming production of "Where's Charley?" on Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Saratoga Civic Theater beginning at 1:00 p.m.

The Frank Loesser musical is based on the classic farce, "Charley's Aunt," and includes such musical standards as "Once in Love with Amy" and "My Darling, My Darling." Production dates are March 9 through March 31.

Director Richard King has called for a cast of five men and three women with a singing and dancing chorus of 20. All who audition should be prepared to sing, dance, and act.

The production staff is headed by Norma Hughes as producer, King as director, with Alan Haydis and Patricia McCaughey as musical directors.

Those persons interested in assisting backstage should plan to attend the auditions. Especially needed are a technical director, seamstresses, and scenic artists. Musicians for the orchestra are also asked to attend.

Saratoga Drama Group is a non-profit organization currently in production with "Kismet," now playing at the Saratoga Theater on weekends through Dec. 9.

For more information, contact Hughes at 296-1271.

ALL-AMERICAN — Former Del Mar high school football star Jeff Toews has been named a second team All-American offensive tackle by United Press International after a fine senior season for the University of Washington. Toews, whose brother Loren is a linebacker with the Pittsburgh Steelers, has been a starter at Washington for four years and was a team co-captain this fall. Jeff Toews is one of three brothers who have starred for Del Mar on the high school level. Along with Jeff, there was Loren and Tim, who went on to become an academic All-American as a lineman for San Jose State University.

Petulla cops MVP honors

JEFF PETULLA, who rushed for over 1,000 yards for the second straight season to lead the Los Gatos Wildcats to their second consecutive West Valley Athletic League football championship, was voted the WVAL's Most Valuable Player at the loop's annual all-league meeting.

In addition to being tabbed the MVP, Petulla was also named the league's Most Outstanding Back for the second straight year.

Other top honors went to Westmont's Ken Pappa, tabbed the Most Outstanding Lineman, Los Gatos' Jeff McKenzie, picked the Most Outstanding Defensive Lineman, and Westmont's Bill Stouffer and Branham's Mark Triplett, who shared Most Outstanding Defensive Back honors.

Westmont, Los Gatos, Prospect and Branham, the top four teams in the WVAL this year, dominated the first team selections, securing 23 of 25 first team spots.

WESTMONT, WHICH finished second to Los Gatos this season, placed the most players — eight — on the first team. Picking up first team offensive spots for the Warriors were Pappa at guard, Bill Gorman at tackle, Steve Moore at wide receiver and Perry Lunt at running back. Nailing down first team defensive berths were Gorman at down lineman, Bruce Blacker at end, Stouffer at linebacker and Todd Devlin at defnesive back.

Los Gatos, meanwhile, landed seven players on the two first team squads, including guard Ron Daley, tackle McKenzie, tight end Kent Cooper, quarterback Kent Gerber and running back Petulla on offense, and down lineman McKenzie and defensive back Cooper on defense.

Prospect, which finished the season in a rush to capture fourth place in the WVAL, had four players picked to first team berths. Running back Dave Maloney, who rushed for over 1,000 yards, and placekicker Phil Rebboah were offensive choices while down lineman Mario Delgado and defensive back Rebboah were defensive picks.

Branham, which tied for second along with Westmont, had four first team selections, also. Wide receiver Al Painter was the Bruins' only offensive pick while end Vic Madden, linebacker Mark Webb and defensive back Triplett were all defensive picks.

The only other first team berths went to Blackford center Dean Lingbeck and Leigh linebacker Glenn Caminiti.

THE ALL-WVAL SECOND team offense was composed of center Ken Galloway of Prospect; guards Jeff Barons of Del Mar and Barry Boyajian of Prospect; tackles Steve Aimonetti of Campbell and Mike Perry of Branham; tight end Gaminiti of Leigh; wide receivers Dave Brock of Los Gatos and Kent Schmidt of Campbell; quarterback Mike Grado of Westmont; and running backs Triplett of Branham, Kevin Kevorkian of Leigh and Randy Chase of Prospect.

Second team defensive spots went to down linemen Chase of Prospect, Jim Groat of Los Gatos and Joe Finley of Blackford; ends Shawn Kelly of Westmont and Tim Sutro of Del Mar; linebackers Barone os Del Mar, Ron Azevedo of Camden and Neal McGuire of Campbell; and defensive backs Lunt of Westmont, Rick McDiarmid of Leigh, Tim Mooney of Westmont and Mitch Paparrotti of Branham.

Earning honorable mention plaudits were Reggie Baltz, Mike DeLaPena, Finley, Curtis Vilane, Mike Rhodda and Mitch Troupe of Blackford; Mike Dillalo, Rob Huff, Al Juarez, Madden, John Malchaski, Dan Monroe and Dan Roderick of Branham; Kevin Brazda, Mark Hendricks and Tim Young of Camden; Kevin Bradley, Andy Boe, Don Erkman, Tim Gaines, Bob Greisinger, Jeff Melrose, Jackie Murdic and Manuel Rodriguez of Campbell; Shedrick Chandler, Chris Duncan, Kendall Hansen, Bruce Prothro, Kirk Quadros, Ken Sutro and Eric Wilson of Del Mar; John Drab, Bob Garrison and Mark Jwry of Leigh; Ron Daley, Mike Empey and Bob Zargone of Los Gatos; Mark Anderson, Greg Kent, Tom Miotke and Scott Williams of Prospect; and Kevin Crawford, Manuel Gandarilla, Bob Hatzenpiller and Tim Mooney of Westmont.

Day drops 21 points to lead Warriors to opening win

THE WESTMONT WARRIORS feel they are definite title contenders this year in the West Valley Athletic League. And they proved that last week by handing defending Central Coast Section champion Silver Creek a 63-55 loss in their 1978-79 basketball season opener.

Artie Day, the Warriors' 6'5½" center, poured in 21 points to spearhead Westmont's offensive attack.

John Cary popped in 14 points and Alen Elliott drilled in 13. Mike Larsen chipped in with nine markers.

After building up a 29-22 halftime lead, the Warriors hit a cold spell in the third period and saw their lead cut to just three points, 44-41, heading into the final quarter. Westmont regrouped in time, however, to outscore SC 19-14 in the last stanza.

The Warriors dropped their next outing to the James Lick Comets, 51-45.

Westmont held a slim 36-34 lead heading into the final period but wound up being blitzed 17-9 in the last eight minutes of the game.

ELLIOTT DUMPED in 17 points to lead the Warrior attack while Cary and Day chipped in with eight and seven points, respectively.

The Blackford Braves got off to a fast start last week, topping both Santa Clara and Overfelt.

The Braves opened their season last Wednesday by whipping the Santa Clara Panthers 52-42. Ahead by just one point at the half, 19-18, Blackford broke the game open in the third period by outscoring the Panthers 27-10.

Tye Ferdinansen keyed the Blackford victory by pouring in 24 points, recording eight field goals and eight free throws.

Mike Healy chipped in with 10 points.

Healy was the hero a night later for Blackford, sinking a clutch free throw with just 27 seconds left to lift the Braves to a 41-40 triumph over the Overfelt Royals.

Ferdinansen, who tied the game at 40-40 with a basket at the two minute mark, led the Braves with 14 points. Healy netted seven.

The Del Mar Dons, perennially one of the top teams in the WVAL, may be in for a long season, judging by their first two outings this season.

THE DONS OPENED their season last Tuesday night by falling to the Yerba Buena Warriors 67-56 and then were humbled 75-29 by a powerful St. Francis team last Friday.

Jim Quilici netted 11 points and Tom Bell tallied 10 for the Dons in their loss to YB. Bell and Quilici shared team scoring honors against St. Francis with eight points apiece.

The Prospect Panthers, who last year captured the WVAL's round-robin championship by defeating regular season champ Leigh twice in the play-offs, opened their season with a 58-55 loss to the Lynbrook Vikings.

Tim Fleury pumped in 21 points for the Panthers in a losing cause.

The Campbell Buccaneers, like the Del Mar Dons, started off their season in dismal fashion last week by being blasted by Willow Glen (78-45) and Peterson (70-32).

Big Warriors definite title contenders in WVAL race

WITH SEVEN returning lettermen, including three honorable mention all-leaguers, Westmont high school should have its best chance at a West Valley Athletic League basketball title in recent years.

Coach Gary Brinck, in his 15th year as Warrior boss, said this is the biggest team he has ever had with the average height on the 14-man squad 6'2".

Leading the list of returning players are guard Mike Larsen (6'2"), forward Allen Elliott (6'4") and Center Artie Day (6'5½"). All three were honorable mention All-WVAL last season as juniors.

John Cary, a 6-2 forward and Chris Clark, a 6-foot guard, both played a great deal last season and should start this year.

Up from the frosh-soph is John Watson, a 6'4" center and Jake McGowan, a 6'2" guard.

"When this group was frosh-soph they won the championship," Brinck said. "We should be a pretty good team this year."

WESTMONT, however, dropped its opening game 51-45 to James Lick. The Warriors led most of the way until they were outscored 17-9 in the final period.

Elliott had 17 points to lead the Westmont attack while Larsen had nine, Cary eight and Day seven.

The Warriors are hosting the Westmont Basketball Tournament this week, playing Monterey in an opening round game Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Brinck's team finished with a 12-12 record a year ago, good enough for a third place finish in the WVAL. This season he sees his team in either the first or second spot. "Branham looks like the team to beat right now," he said. "But Del Mar is always tough and Los Gatos could be a darkhorse."

Brinck also is worried about Leigh and Blackford, saying "you can't overlook anybody in this league."

Westmont's game plan will be to run whenever possible but at the same time try to control the ball on defense. The Warrior's height should make running fairly easy.

Braves win WVAL spike crown, fall at Region III

THE 1978 VOLLEYBALL season ended in defeat for the Blackford Braves last week.

But even though their season ended with a loss, those Brave girls were winners — no, not just winners, champions!

Blackford rolled to the West Valley Athletic League girl's volleyball championship this past fall to win a berth in the Central Coast Section's regional play-offs.

Blackford represented the WVAL in the Region III play-offs on Nov. 28 at Yerba Buena high school.

The Braves took on Live Oak, champs of the Santa Teresa Athletic League, in the opening round of the Region III event but lost a 15-2, 15-5, 15-8 decision at the hands of the Acorns. Live Oak had finished its league season with a perfect 14-0 record.

Later that night St. Francis, an at-large team in the play-offs from the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League, took on Samuel Ayer, champs of the Mt. Hamilton Athletic League, and posted a 15-2, 15-3, 15-12 victory.

THE LANCERS, defending Central Coast Section champs, had finished the league season with a 10-1 record and Ayer had finished loop play at 10-0.

In the Region III finale, St. Francis knocked off Live Oak to move into the CCS championships last weekend.

But just to get into regional competition, Blackford had to win a title. And the Braves did just that by posting a 6-2 record to claim the WVAL crown.

Blackford wrapped up the WVAL championship on the final day of the season by defeating Camden 15-5, 16-15.

Members of the Blackford championship team, under the leadership of coach Guy Sanders and his assistant Randy Sato, included seniors Lisa Bishop (5'9"), Laurie Johnston (5'10½") and Linda Bernal (5'1"), juniors Diane Archuleta (5'4") and Kelli Troupe (5'6"), sophomores Lori Minardi (5'4") and Tara Sweeney (5'8") and freshman Shannon Sweeney (5'8").

Third annual Serpa bat camp at SJCC

THE COMPLETE baseball course will be covered at the third annual Lefty Serpa All Star Baseball Camp beginning Dec. 27 at San Jose City College.

Included in the complete course is conditioning and muscle stretching as well as "Vision Hitting," taught exclusively by the All Star staff.

Instruction will begin at 9 a.m. Dec. 27 and continue until Dec. 30. The course begins at 9 a.m. each morning and concludes at 12:30 p.m.

Featured instructors are Marc Hill, catcher for the San Francisco Giants; Darrel Johnson, manager of the Seattle Mariners; Ted Kubiak, former infielder with the Oakland A's; Bob Locker, former relief pitcher of the A's, and Al Endriss, recently named National Baseball Coach of the Year.

Cost of the four-day course is $79, and a $25 deposit is required to assure a reservation with the balance due the first day of camp.

Free brochures and applications may be obtained by calling the school's main office in Rodeo from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. daily at (415) 799-3166.

Basketball league in Campbell

SIGN-UPS for a three-man hunch basketball league in Campbell are currently being conducted at the City of Campbell Community Services office, 75 N. Central ave.

The league, which will begin in January, will be held Thursday nights at Campbell high school from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Teams will play a best two out of three games to 30 points. There are no officials.

The league will be split into four divisions: 14-17 years old, under 6'; 14-29, 6' and over; 18-29, under 6'; and 30 year olds and older.

Teams must have at least 60 per cent of their players living or working in Campbell. There is a $15 team registration fee.

For further information call Mark McCarroll at 378-8141.

Warriors on Radio

THE GOLDEN State Warriors host the San Antonio Spurs Friday night and the Atlanta Hawks Saturday evening in a pair of National Basketball Association games that will be broadcast over KNBR radio (68) beginning at 8 p.m. both nights.

The Warriors will then take off for Chicago and a Dec. 12, battle with the Artis Gilmore-led Chicago Bulls. Airtime will be 5:30 p.m.

Bill King will handle the play-by-play duties.

Tigers work on surprises

NORMALLY WHEN A football team has been winning every week it does not change its offense, but the San Jose Tigers are not a normal football team.

Coach Billy Wilson has been introducing something new every week, and he says he will have some surprises for the Tacoma Pierce County Bengals in Holiday Bowl II Sunday at Spartan Stadium.

Wilson said the Tigers may make more use of the shotgun information, which they have used only on occasion to date.

One would think San Jose could just stick to what has been working. After all, the Tigers are the No. 1 minor league football team in the country with a 14-0 record, including a 32-6 thumping of Shreveport, La., the previous No. 1 team.

But head coach Steve Harshman of the Bengals says his team is better than it was last year when Pierce County beat the Tigers 28-27 with a 70-yard fumble recovery touchdown in the fianl 30 seconds.

The Bengals will outweigh the Tigers by 12 pounds per man on the line and are deeper than San Jose at every position. Pierce County will suit up 50 players while CFL rules permit the Tigers to use only 43 players.

SAN JOSE has been relying all year on the passing of quarterback Craig Kimball, who has thrown at least one touchdown pass in each of the Tigers' 29 games in the past two years.

The shotgun, says Wilson, should enhance the passing game even further.

Wilson was a member of Red Hickey's San Francisco 49ers coaching staff when he sprung the shotgun on the confused Baltimore Colts in 1961.

Not only did it improve the passing game, but the running game as well, Wilson said. He explained that it rattles and spreads out the defense and in general makes the other team jumpy.

An added attraction for fans at the game will be the Cupertino high school marching band's halftime production.

Considered one of the best high school bands in the country, the 200-member group will perform the same show seen nationally on the San Francisco 49ers-Pittsburgh Steelers Monday Night Football game.

Tickets for the Holiday Bowl are $5 for adults and $3 for children under 18.

For those unable to attend the game, it will be broadcast live on KXRX radio.

Trio of pins key Spartan comeback

WITH JUST three matches left to wrestle, Humboldt State held a rather comfortable 15-7 lead over the San Jose State University wrestling team last week in the Spartan Gym.

But strange things are known to happen when those Spartans walk onto the mat in "The Pit." The Spartans made things a bit uncomfortable for Humboldt in San Jose — and it was as simple as one, two, three!

James Rey made Humboldt a little uneasy when he cut the visitor's lead from 15-7 to 15-13 with a second round fall at 177 pounds. The Buchser high school graduate put his foe to the mat at 3:34 of their match to cut down the Humboldt lead.

Then Duane Harris walked onto the mat for his 190 pound bout and registered a first round fall at the 1:55 mark to erase the Lumberjack advantage and put the Spartans on top 18-15.

That sent the match right down to the final bout and junior heavyweight Guy Heath didn't let down his Spartan teammates. The biggest Spartan pinned his opponent at 4:10 of the second round to help San Jose secure an exciting 25-15 come-from-behind victory.

THINGS WERE very close all night in the non-league bout in San Jose. Marty Lockwood, a grad of Monta Vista high in Cupertino, lost a close 7-5 decision at 118 pounds before Baza won 8-3 at 126 for the Spartans.

Lee Mills, a product of Peterson high, lost a close 5-3 decision at 134 pounds and sophomore Brian Strock lost 9-3 to former area great Mike Fredenburg at 142 pounds. Fredenburg was a mat star locally at Campbell high and West Valley College.

Bob McDowell, a grad of Wilcox, got the Spartans back on the winning track with a 13-5 decision at 150 pounds but Reggie Thompson lost 2-1 at 158 and Mike Snipes fell 17-15 at 167 to send the Spartans into the last three matches trailing 15-7.

That just set the stage for the three late Spartan pins that enabled San Jose to pull out the victory.

San Jose will be on the road Wednesday, Dec. 6, to visit San Francisco State and will head to Brigham Young University this weekend for the Beehive tournament. The following Tuesday the Spartans will host Ohio State at 7:30 p.m. in the Spartan Gym.

Hoop tourney slated

EIGHT TEAMS will vie for the championship in the Blossom Valley Classic, set to begin at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

First round games will match Oak Grove and Blackford at 7 p.m. Wednesday followed by host Gunderson and Mountain View at 8:30 p.m.

Thursday at 7 p.m. Pioneer and Wilcox will square off with Santa Teresa battling Campbell at 8:30 p.m.

Four games will be played Friday beginning at 4 p.m.

Raider graduates

THREE college coaches formerly affiliated with the Oakland Raiders will be taking their teams to major bowl games this year. John Robinson, head coach at the University of Southern California and a former Raider assistant coach, will have his USC team in the Rose Bowl. Stanford head coach Bill Walsh, also once a Raider assistant, is taking his club to the Blue-Bonnet Bowl in Houston. And Warren Powers, who played in the defensive secondary for the Raiders from 1963 to 1968, will lead his University of Missouri squad into the Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

He doesn't say much now, but nobody can top his Merry Christmas.

City's job now

County drops handling of garbage complaints

FOR MONTHS the county health department and fire marshal's office has been working to get the "junkyard" in front of a home on Crockett avenue cleaned up. Methods included forcing the owner to purchase garbage service, threats of abatement proceedings and several inspections to check on progress.

That approach evidently paid off as these "before" and "after" shots taken a week apart show.

But in the future it will be the city's responsibility to investigate garbage complaints (along with complaints of dog droppings).

Last month the county environmental health services office informed cities they will no longer handle these complaints. In approving the p t Proposition 13 budget, county supervisors opted to eliminate these services.

"Although these services have been performed in the past they were never part of the mandates services which we have and will continue to provide the cities," wrote EHS Director V. L. Cancilla.

So, in the future direct complaints to Campbell City Hall, 378-8141.
